Type of CLPL Activity:

This is an experience which provides an opportunity at the beginning of the school year for personal reflection and prayer, leading to growth in self-awareness, beliefs, values and commitment

This will enable teachers to:

- Reflect upon their own personal journey of faith
- Reflect upon their own personal values and beliefs
- Experience a deeper encounter with Jesus Christ
- Become more familiar with the Word of God
- Develop confidence in simple faith sharing
- Become aware of resources for prayer and spiritual encounter

RETREAT THEME:

Jesus the Face of the Father's Mercy

Pope Francis has named this year as a YEAR OF MERCY for the whole Church.

This retreat will explore images of Jesus and how this connects with our own prayer.

This will then lead to reflection on how Jesus looks at us in prayer.

Following on from this three passages of scripture will be explored where the gaze of Jesus changes the disciples.

This will be explored using passages from the Visual Bible.

The retreat will end by taking time to tune into God's mercy and practice the Jesus prayer.
